Commissioner for Patents

Dear Sir:

On behalf of the patentee, Glycozym Aps, please enter the following citation into the prosecution history of the above-identified patent. A copy of the cited reference is attached.

1. U.S. Patent No. 6,593,119

U.S. Patent No. 6,593,119 ("the '119 patent") was cited by the Examiner as a 35 U.S.C. §102(e) reference during the prosecution of two child applications of the instant patent (U.S. Patent No. 6,794,169; "the instant '169 patent"). Specifically, the '119 patent was cited during the prosecution of related applications U.S.S.N. 10/388,307, now U.S. Patent No. 7,094,887, and U.S.S.N. 10/843,723, now U.S. Patent No. 7,078,206. In each case, the 35 U.S.C. §102(e) rejection in view of the '119 patent was overcome.

The '119 patent was not cited by the Examiner during the prosecution of the application (U.S.S.N. 10/084,406) that resulted in the instant '169 patent. Consequently, we were not aware of the Korczak '119 patent during the prosecution of the application that resulted in the instant '169 patent. Accordingly, the '119 patent is herewith being submitted under 35 U.S.C. § 1.501.

The present claims are patentable over the cited reference at least for the following reasons. The '119 patent is not prior art under 35 U.S.C. §102(e) to the instant '169 patent. The instant '169 patent claims priority to U.S. provisional application serial no. 60/150,488, which was filed on August 24, 1999. The '119 patent claims priority to U.S. provisional application serial no. 60/185,702, which was filed Feb. 29, 2000. Accordingly, the '119 patent is at best entitled to a priority date (Feb. 29, 2000) that is AFTER the priority date of the instant '169 patent (Aug. 24, 1999).

35 U.S.C. §102(e)(2) states that "a person shall be entitled to a patent unless a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent..." As discussed above, the '119 patent's earliest possible priority date is February 29, 2000, which is AFTER, not before, the instant '169 patent's priority date. Thus, the '119 patent is not prior art to the instant '169 patent.

Timely and favorable consideration of this request is respectfully requested.

It is believed that no fee is required for this request; however, the Commissioner is authorized to charge any deficiency of up to $300.00 to Deposit Account No. 04-0100. If the Examiner has any questions in regard to this request, the Examiner is requested to contact the undersigned attorney at the telephone number given below.

Dated: December 1, 2006

Respectfully submitted,
